

AHE Coffee Chat 2024 Series

Advancing Health Equity cordially invites you to our next AHE Coffee Chat. Each quarter, participants discuss an article from the popular press covering an issue about health disparities impacting the entire United States.

The Coffee Chats spur conversation, engage the imagination, and create connections with others invested in advancing health equity. Get a cup of joe (or some sunny green tea) and an afternoon snack and join us in this informal, one-hour discussion. We hope to see you there!
